ONE OF THE FINEST WOMEN WHO EVER WALKED THE STREETS

Cary Grant: "Haven't you ever met a man who could make you happy?"

Mae West: "Sure. Lots of times."

—She Done Him Wrong, 1933

The newspapers gave her age as 88 in the story they pulled of the wire services three years ago. Mae West, it was revealed, had been secretly confined to Los Angeles' Good Samaritan Hospital five weeks earlier. She had suffered a stroke that had left her unable to speak. Her condition was slowly improving.

For years it was rumored that the world would be in for a big surprise when one of Hollywood's biggest sex symbols passed away. The finger of suspicion was repeatedly pointed at Mae, with the implication being that perhaps La West wasn't born a woman. Although never proven, this outrageous claim has a certain poetic justice which may help to account for its indestructibility. Anyone can watch the old movies, study photographs, listen again to the familiar and uniquely nasal "C'mon up" innuendoes which she invented and popularized, and come away thinking that it just might be possible, that Mae was or had been a man. After all, didn't she always wear long, leg-veiling gowns? Hadn't she claimed that the records of her birth had "accidentally" been washed away in a flood fifty or sixty years ago?

In any case, whatever the nature of the revelations yet to come (and as of yet haven't), the question of Mae West's gender ought by this time to be irrevocably and irrelevantly academic. Mae West did more than anyone, excepting the possibility of Freud and Kinsey, to cast off the antiquated sexual propriety of the Victorian age. She was the first woman to create popular entertainment simply by treating men the way men had always treated women. She was a pioneer. Singlehandedly she taught the 20th century how to laugh at sex.

Mae West was never a sex symbol in the vapid Hollywood tradition that embraced Harlow, Monroe or Raquel Welch. More than just an exceptionally clever actress, Mae was an accomplished and prolific writer. She was responsible for penning all of her legitimate stage successes and most of her screenplays. Later in her career, when she took to making guest appearances, she always wrote her own dialogue. So in memory to you Mae, just this little reminder, on the anniversary of your passing away to that big chintz boudoir in the sky, lest we forget!

Mother with child: "Lou, you're a fine woman."
Mae West: "One of the finest women who ever walked the streets."

from the Mouth of The Dragon

I appreciate our conversation Mrs. Pettybone. Forewarned is forewarned. While two of the three aren't worth a thimble full of piss to me, I care for the one deeply.

XXXXX

We've always had a bond, something special between us John, not to mention our families, that cuts thru all the bullshit. You know I care. However, before you go screaming to your grave "Pandora's Box", injustice, and etc, I only stepped on your toe, I didn't break your leg.

XXXXX

Keep running your mouth Tish, faster than a goose can shit, as you only perpetuate the Dragon Lady myth. I love it!

XXXXX

Wouldn't it be jolly to start a birthday column, wishing each person well, and listing their true age.

XXXXX

Pussy La Hoot wants me to tell everyone up in North Land hello. She told me she was like a Goddess to the folks up there. It's her dime darlings. No wonder she ran away from Dani Reid. Folks in that area can only handle one Goddess at a time.

XXXXX

By Jove I think I've got it! Dani Reid and Cowboy. They certainly would have one thing in common, and I don't mean drag. Booze!

XXXXX

I had a great time when I was a guest bartender at Cruisin' Central. A special thanks to everyone from the 307 as you helped make my day. It was worth it just to look at Steve. He's fine, just fine.

XXXXX

Were you ready for the Cruisettes, aka Phyllis and Timmy at the 307 last Sunday night? They arrived in a limo and received a big, big, basket of flowers compliments of Rob and Jay. Rob is in the funeral business you know.

XXXXX

Flash! It sounds like wedding bells for Timmy and Mike. Hope Timmy doesn't wear white, as the last bride to wear white, Ken C., just vanished. Absconded would be a better word.

XXXXX

You know Lucy, this whole sordid scene with Ken, didn't make Dennis God, but it certainly affords him the opportunity for saying "I told you so", to some of us. Aint that a bitch.

XXXXX

Stop in and have a Margarita with Mouse, Monday nites, at Cruisin' Central.

XXXXX

Oona told me she would do guest spots in other shows if anyone asks her. Thank you very much.

XXXXX

ZaZa from the Grand Camel, a previous talent winner, was in the show at Shamoo's last Saturday night. She almost stole the show, mustache and all.

XXXXX

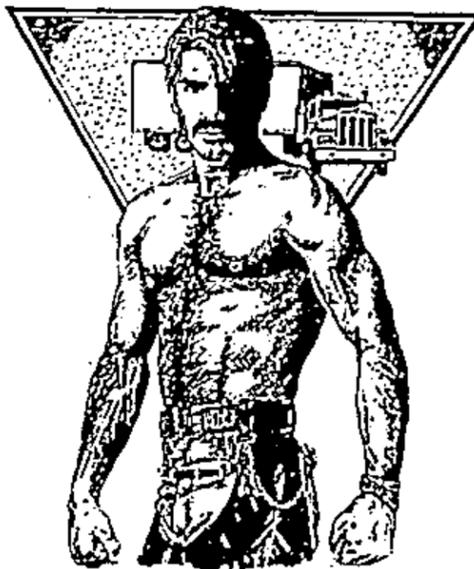

If you need any phone repairs just call Shamette. If the phone is working that is, at Shamoo's.

XXXXX

In closing, I don't know what I'm selling, but I'm glad you're buying it. Thanks to you, my Loyal Legion of Fans. I remain,

DRAGON LADY
aka Tom Clark

TUCSON BAR SOAPS

by Gloria Spumonti and Agnes Vixon

GENERAL HYSTERIA — Luke Spencer is having an identity crisis. Now that he has his own "Wookiee", he thinks that he is Luke Skywalker. Back to the roof boys, same game.

The RUMOR MILL is overflowing with the news from Landview, thanks Asa. Simply everyone is aghast at the fact(?) that Aunt Ruby is trying to take over Monica's position. Everyone except Monica and Aunt Ruby that is.

Scottie Baldwin goes in for higher education. Everyone in Port Charles cheers him on as he takes his first plunge towards sixth grade.

ARE THEY ALL MY CHILDREN? — Erica meets Diana Ross and decides that she should enlarge her wardrobe. With the help of Jesse, Erica tries to lift a small, unnoticeable, twelve foot, white chiffon duster off the stage of McKale center.

Phoebe is stranded by the big flood. How she handles all the peace and quiet at home with her husband, is still a mystery to all of Pine Valley.

Poor Tad Martin is coming down with something again. He says it is a cold or the flu, but one wonders whether it might have something to do with the John. Opel can't get through the door. Is it the weather or her hips?

ONE LIFE TO REVIVE — When Asa Buchanan talks, people listen. Then they go back to the people Asa was talking about and tell them everything Asa said. One wonders when will Asa learn.

Brad Vernon is asked to leave the Landview West. Even after all the extra time he put in (or was it out) for Asa, fat lip and all. The fact of the matter is, when ones tip jar has more in it than their cash register, something is wrong.

Chuck Wilson, Asa's number one confidant, feels he is sitting pretty with the press. Just because he gives some exclusive stories to reporters he thinks they will overlook the fact that he doesn't like them and talks trash behind their back.

RONNIE'S HOPE — Maeve and Patrick Ryan seem to be paranoid that Ryan's Place might be turning into Taco Bell. Between the two of them, they try their best to develop just the right type of crowd. The Weasel Princess appears courtesy of any bar room floor.

Johnny Ryan has to leave the city to rescue this parents from the big flood. Everyone at Ryan's Place wonders if this might set Maeve off on one of her drinking binges again, but what can they do anyway?

CLUB BATHS OPENS NEW HIGH TECH LOOK!

PHOENIX - Grand opening of the Club Phoenix, last Sunday nite was definitely an experience. Extensive buffet, 3 piece combo, 2 champagne fountains, all done by the pool complete with floating candles, gave the evening an ambience not often associated with the baths.

All this, to celebrate the new completely modernized facilities. The poolside accommodations now have built in bathrooms complete with private showers. The high tech look extends even to the all new weight room.

Owner of the Club Bath chain, Mr. Chuck Fleck, along with Greg of the Phoenix baths, hosted the evening. (By the way, according to one source, Mr. Fleck was the hottest thing to hit this city in decades).

The entire evening was a first class affair. Waiters and bartenders dressed in Chippendale like tux outfits were sexy as hell. Once source reveals he personally had a hard time keeping his eyes off the bartender and on the surroundings. Suggestion: Maybe do this once a month!

307 CELEBRATES!

PHOENIX - An institution in Phoenix celebrated it's 21st Anniversary Sunday October 2nd with gaiety and much cheer. The institution of course is Little Jim's 307. The 307, after 21 years (the last 3 as Little Jim's) has become a fun and favorite party place, as witnessed last Sunday night, by the SRO crowd.

The cheer flowed freely as both show girls and guests cruised and enjoyed themselves. The 3rd Anniversary Party also contained many surprises throughout the evening, including entertainment never previewed in Phoenix and a birthday guest, now 35 1/2 (1/2 a decade that is) who was showered with a birthday roast from the showgirls. All in all a great time!

LEVI/LEATHER CLUB FORMS IN TUCSON

TUCSON - A new Levi/Leather club is in formation here. TALL (Tucson, Arizona Levi Leathermen) held it's first Executive Board meeting at the Fineline last Sunday, October 2.

The Board members, President Lee Ridinger, Vice President Larry M., Treasurer Ken M., Secretary Mark E., Run Captain Tom and various charter members spent the afternoon organizing the Constitution and by-laws. Copies will be available at the first open meeting, the first Sunday of November at the Fineline at 2:00pm. The Fineline will ber the new home bar for TALL. Further information will be reported as TALL unfolds on Tucson. Watch the Fineline for remodeling and opening of an exciting new leather/levi bar.

TUCSON GAY YOUTH REGROUPS

TUCSON - The Tucson gay Youth group will begin meeting again starting Saturday, October 15 at 5:00pm at 560 South Stone. For further information, call 622-4536.

Lobby Preparations

The call for political action against anti-Civil Rights and anti-homosex legislation in reaction to AIDS is in the process of organization.

A number of calls were made on Saturday, Sunday and Monday, September 24, 25 and 26. These responses came in before the announced date of Tuesday, September 27, as printed in the Attitude September 23. Some calls were not recorded since the tape was full because of vacation.

If you called before Tuesday, September 27, please call again! This could be very important to all of us. The number for the lobby is 993-8337. Call anytime, leave your name and number. We will get back to you.

OASIS IN THE DESERT!

Dear Editor:
How refreshing! An oasis in the desert of obliqueness and uptightness. I don't have to read your publication between the lines - so honest. Thank you for being there.

S.J. McPhee, Tucson

TOO MUCH MALE!

Dear Editor:
Question. Why the stress on males in your newspaper. Just wondering, as it is strange for a publication with your concept.

Cathy O'Neill, Phoenix

Ed. note:
You are not the first to point that out. Unfortunately we have not been able to get any real lesbian input. We have tried to the point of exasperation, but to no avail. We do not want to be biased, however at this time we just haven't the support. If you know of anyone or anyway to open the door, please let us know. Thanks for the observation.

LUBRICANT SLIPS UP, PRODUCT RECALLED!

NEW BRUNSWICK, NJ (GCN) - The manufacturers of KY lubricant jelly have announced the recall of selected lots of their product. Affected by the recall notice are tubes or packets of KY jelly embossed with the lot numbers beginning with 2284 through 2304 and 3001 through 3056. "Some of this product," says manufacturer Johnson and Johnson, "may contain a crystalline precipitate that could cause temporary irritation and discomfort when used."

The defective product may be returned to the retailer for a refund, or may be returned directly to them manufacturer: Johnson & Johnson Products, Inc. Eastern Surgical Dressings Plan, Customer Returns Department, U.S. Route 1, New Brunswick, NJ 08903, Attn: Mr. J.E. Yarosh.

Dear Editor:
On September 29th, Congressman Mo Udall became the 73rd co-sponsor of HR 427, the "Civil Rights Amendments Act of 1983." The bill is better known as the National Gay Rights Bill and designed to prohibit discrimination on the basis of affectional or sexual orientation. Congressman Udall's co-sponsorship is an important progressive step for the human rights movement.
I want to thank and congratulate all who have made telephone calls to Mo's office or have taken the time to write to Udall asking that he co-sponsor the National Gay Rights Bill. A special thanks to Kirk Baxter and the Arizona Lesbian and Gay Task Force for their unceasing determination in the effort. It takes all of us working together to make it happen.
I would also encourage everyone to show support for Congressman Udall in his recent decision to co-sponsor HR 427. Support can be exhibited through a "thank you" call to his office or by dropping a note of thanks in the mail. Call or write: Representative Morris K. Udall
300 North Main

629-6404
or
235 Cannon House Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20515
(202)225-4065
Now is the time to show Congressman Udall that there is strong community support for his decision.

GENERAL HYSTERIA — Luke Spencer is having an identity crisis. Now that he has his own "Wookie", he thinks that he is Luke Skywalker. Back to the roof boys, same game.

The RUMOR MILL is overflowing with the news from Landview, thanks Asa. Simply everyone is aghast at the fact(?) that Aunt Ruby is trying to take over Monica's position. Everyone except Monica and Aunt Ruby that is.

Scottie Baldwin goes in for higher education. Everyone in Port Charles cheers him on as he takes his first plunge towards sixth grade.

ARE THEY ALL MY CHILDREN? — Erica meets Diana Ross and decides that she should enlarge her wardrobe. With the help of Jesse, Erica tries to lift a small, unnoticeable, twelve foot, white chiffon duster off the stage of McKale center.

Phoebe is stranded by the big flood. How she handles all the peace and quiet at home with her husband, is still a mystery to all of Pine Valley.

Poor Tad Martin is coming down with something again. He says it is a cold or the flu, but one wonders whether it might have something to do with the John. Opel can't get through the door. Is it the weather or her hips?

ONE LIFE TO REVIVE — When Asa Buchanan talks, people listen. Then they go back to the people Asa was talking about and tell them everything Asa said. One wonders when will Asa learn.

Brad Vernon is asked to leave the Landview West. Even after all the extra time he put in (or was it out) for Asa, fat lip and all. The fact of the matter is, when ones tip jar has more in it than their cash register, something is wrong.

Chuck Wilson, Asa's number one confidant, feels he is sitting pretty with the press. Just because he gives some exclusive stories to reporters he thinks they will overlook the fact that he doesn't like them and talks trash behind their back.

RONNIE'S HOPE — Maeve and Patrick Ryan seem to be paranoid that Ryan's Place might be turning into Taco Bell. Between the two of them, they try their best to develop just the right type of crowd. The Weasel Princess appears courtesy of any bar room floor.

Johnny Ryan has to leave the city to rescue his parents from the big flood. Everyone at Ryan's Place wonders if this might set Maeve off on one of her drinking binges again, but what can they do anyway?

IS CRUISING REALLY FOR ME?

Well of course it is. Unless of course... A story to illustrate this point. My friend Bob, wasn't very good at cruising because of his negative attitude. He was most happy when two of our friends decided to begin a monogamous relationship. Both were already stable individuals. One moved into the other's home, because it was larger, having 5 bedrooms, pool, 3 car garage and a built in microwave oven. In describing the situation, Bob was clearly envious of the two. He said "They're both wealthy, have a lovely house, an Irish Setter, and they don't even CRUISE! They must be dead."

After all, even straight people cruise. At least that is what I have been told. But Gay people cruise all the time. In a maternity ward it is possible to pick out the Gay baby, since his eyes function much sooner, darting back and forth, and he is likely to wear handkerchiefs instead of diapers, or at least knot them on the side, not using pins.

There are degrees of cruising, to be sure. Some are hardly noticeable, while others are so intense as to be somewhat destructive in their application. We have compiled a list of the more common cruises used in this area.

Cruise Level One is sometimes called the sleeping cruise, because it is so mild. It is characterized by a short glance to the cruisee. If the cruisee doesn't see it coming and prepare a reaction, the cruiser will probably not give a second glance.

On the other end of the scale is Cruise Level Ten, better known as the C.O.D. We'll get back to this one later.

There is Auto-Cruise. This cruise usually happens in traffic, at a stop light or sign. It is most successfully used in a convertible with the top down. It of course can also be done on a moped, but the effect is just not quite the same.)

Cruiser slowly turns his head until eye contact is made with the cruisee. A successful cruise has been completed if the cruisee follows the cruiser in this car. It is especially successful if the cruisee performs a u-turn in rush hour traffic in order to follow.

There is also the Aero-Cruise. This is most commonly applied at an airport. (Though not always) The cruiser is waiting for his flight to leave, having arrived two hours early so he can cruise. The cruisee is also waiting for a plane, but probably not on purpose. This cruise more often uses verbal signals. Commonly used are, "Goin my way?", "Nervous?", "First Class?", "Smoking or non?" or more blatantly, "Hi there buddy, see something you like?"

There is Pod-O-Cruise. Used by underage chicken types, the opening line is usually, "Hey Mister, got a quarter?"

Then we have the C.O.D. (cruise level 10), or Cruise of Death. It was first reported publicly, by Fiala, in Christopher Street. This cruise should only be used by the most experienced cruiser, since it is so intense in its application. The cruisee need not even be facing the cruiser, or be in close proximity to him. If the cruisee is facing the cruiser, he will know he is being cruised, because shortly his vision will be clouded except on the cruiser. If the cruisee is facing away from the cruiser, he will most often feel a burning sensation at the base of the neck. This cruise becomes almost hypnotic in effect, so discretion must be used.

So remember, "If he doesn't cruise, or says he doesn't cruise, check his pulse, he is either dead, a liar and quite possibly both."

Tinsel Trivia

TINSEL TIDBITS FOR OCTOBER

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 1 - 1st actor to win an Academy Award is Emil Jannings. For his wardrobe in "The Way of All Flesh," one of the two films he won for, the realism-minded actor wore a real derelict's clothes. Movie released, 1927. (Janning's other winning role: "The Last Command.")

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 5 - Cagney dances! His 13th flick, but 1st singing and dancing role for the former hooper. "Footlight Parade," considered by many the best "backstage musical," opens, 1933.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 6 - Fad for blonde streaks in dark hair starts after Audrey Hepburn wears 'em in "Breakfast at Tiffanys." Reviewed, 1961.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 8th - Bette Davis's 1st Warner Brothers flick, "The Man Who Played God," (released 1932) leads to contract with the studio. She stays 18 years.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 10th - In her hometown of Honolulu, Bette Midler lands work as an extra in "Hawaii." She uses the money to leave for New York, where she lands role in the chorus of Broadway's "Fiddler on the Roof." "Hawaii" opens, 1966.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 11 - If you want to see more of that beautiful scenery in "Oklahoma," you'll have to visit Arizona - where the movie is filmed. Studio decides it's closer to turn of the century Oklahoma than the real thing. Movie reviewed, 1955. Stars Gordon MacRae, Shirley Jones, Gloria Grahame.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 13th - Most oscar nominations in Academy Award history - 14 - go to "All About Eve." It wins 6 awards, including Best Picture. Bette Davis, Anne Baxter star. Premieres 1950.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 16th - For the fillibuster scene in "Mr Smith Goes to Washington," James Stewart got the doctor to give him a real sore throat. An irritant chemical was sprayed near Stewart's vocal chords to make him hoarse-voiced. Movie released 1939.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 19th - In an AP dispatch from London, Tallulah Bankhead explains that a lousy memory for names is the reason she calls everybody "dahling," 1964. "I once introduced a friend of mine as Martini. Her name was actually Olive," says Tallu.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 21st - "What a Dump!" Bette Davis line made famous in "Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolfe?" comes from "Beyond the Forest," released 1937. Bette gets worst reviews of her career for this one.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 28th - 1st underground movie in color is "The Mysterious Island," based on Jules Verne's story. Copyrighted, 1929. Lionel Barrymore stars.

Sorry, no winners from last weeks trivia contest. It was kind of hard. Marilyn Monroe has been gone for awhile and god knows her memory and her face haven't been too exploited. Oh well, better luck next time. Now we have to come up with even a harder one!

Perhaps we've met.

I know you've seen me in the Camel cigarette ads, but perhaps we met somewhere else.

Before becoming the Camel man, my name was Lance. Then I met this ad agency type at Connection and he took me to New York, put me in all sorts of butch drag, and changed my name. He said I would appear in ads and on billboards for the test marketing of gay male smokers in Arizona, then later across the nation. That was several years ago, and I still haven't graced the pages of the Advocate, Blueboy, Honcho or even Attitude.

Instead, they put me in ads in Newsweek, Playboy, Penthouse and on billboards everywhere, even Cleveland, the armpit of Ohio.

I never wanted this. Now I know how the Village People felt. You just can't trust men in gay bars who wear business suits.

Perhaps we'll meet, yet!

GAY AREAS TELEPHONE DIRECTORY

The Gay Areas Telephone Directory was introduced to the West Coast market in 1979. Since its inception, the directory has grown by leaps and bounds and now we are proud to present the directory on a national level. Our upcoming 7th edition scheduled for distribution in December of 1983 will be a sophisticated and comprehensive guide for the lesbian/gay market. It is a full size directory featuring personal and business listings that run the gamut from attorneys to zoos. We enjoy and welcome the continued support of business owners in bridging the gap between the straight and gay business world.
Join us and watch your business grow.

Star scope LOVESIGNS FOR OCTOBER

LIBRA LOVESCOPE: October is a wonderful month for romance and communication as both Venus and Mercury have joined the Sun and Pluto in your sign. Yes, there are four positive planets in Libra as October begins. If you don't find love this month, you can only blame yourself.

SCORPIO LOVESCOPE: October can see some balancing of the love scales taking place. However, the last part of the month can see some tempers boil and arguments flare with a loved one or a boss. Be diplomatic and give advice only when asked.

SAGITTARIUS LOVESCOPE: The first ten days of October can see love unlocking the doors and answering your problems. Mid-month finds teamwork in romance accented. Your period of aloneness is ending as you feel very outgoing and social in October.

CAPRICORN LOVESCOPE: If there are any romantic and domestic changes to be undertaken, choose to act in early October for best results. The later part of October is better for career than love. Late October could find you tripping over a new romantic interest when least expected.

AQUARIUS LOVESCOPE: If there is someone whom you dislike but have been nice to, then expect this to suddenly change in a flurry of words in October. You are not in a mood this October to put up with nonsense. Jealousy can disrupt October love. Let your mate lead the way this month.

PISCES LOVESCOPE: Long distance love is keyed for October. A business trip, a convention, or an out of town assignment may lead you into a new romantic attraction, especially mid-month. Or, he may travel to you! Either way, October puts two distant people together.

ARIES LOVESCOPE: If October romance seems to be faltering, then take the lead with some positive overtures. Make your feelings known. But, for the most part, October is good for romance and partnerships. It seems that you're on a luck streak as October progresses.

TAURUS LOVESCOPE: October is a harmonious month as you easily balance work and pleasure. In fact, those who are married may decide to take a second honeymoon trip. For those who are still single, Jupiter in your fifth house of love affairs brings luck to new encounters.

GEMINI LOVESCOPE: The first ten days of October are the most exciting for dating. The tenth to twentieth are best for serious romance. Marriage is favored after November fifth. Follow this romantic schedule for the best astrological build-up to true love.

CANCER LOVESCOPE: October is a month of changes in your environment. Love will blossom this month which will probably be the only stabilizing influence in your October life. Enjoy your Octoberfest of dates but do not get serious. They are love affairs, not long term commitments.

LEO LOVESCOPE: October brings forth a settling in romance. Game playing has ended. You are now serious about settling the romantic matter before Autumn settles in. Your mind produces good judgment. October finds your energies, at last, properly directed.

VIRGO LOVESCOPE: October puts a spotlight on love. It's a good time to get out and take your share of romance. A conservative approach is needed in work, but not in love. It's a very social month. Try not to get dejected if some of your dates do not repeat. The right one will.

Ask Allen

Dear Allen:
My lover says he wants to get in FF, but I say this may be harmful. Also, could you describe FF in detail, as I am not sure how it is done.

Wondering in Ajo

Dear Wondering:
FF? the real FF done right by the most secret of groups may be quite harmful. What you do is get down on your hands and knees and crawl around, saying "FF, FF", until people think you are a dog. But how would you like to stay that way, as happens to some people? So be careful on some of these new recreations!

Dear Allen:
I am sick and tired of your retarded advice. I say anyone who is stupid enough to write to you deserves your answers. My advice is forget you creep. Buying a dog will bring much more solace than your advice.

Disgusted

Dear Disgusted:
Arf arf woof; woof-arf. Bow wow wow, grrrr. FF FF.

Dear Allen:
My lover is always looking out the window at some hunky numbers across the street. I have told him that he was being unfaithful to me, cruising is just as bad as the real thing. He says he is merely adjusting the curtains. I told him he is perverse and should seek help. By the way the curtains are fine the way they are. What can I do?

Simply Upset

Dear Simply:
First of all, I have been to your place and the curtains do need adjusting. Secondly if he is perverse, please send him to me so I can straighten him out!

Dear Allen:
I have invited you and your entire staff to my last party and none of you came.

Embarrassed in Glendale

Dear Embarrassed
No but our collective eyes did get glassy! Anyway the last time we came to one of your parties there was no food until someone sent out for hot dogs!

Dear Allen:
I am a rather gorgeous man who has always been into body building. I am rather massive with extremely broad shoulders, narrowing down to a size 30 waist. Now I find that I would like to look like all of the anorexic clones that are so popular right now, but don't know where to start. Should I get off the testosterone and steroids? I feel like a total freak, I stand out wherever I go, with men groping me and cruising me to the point that I feel like a slab of beef hanging in a meat market. What can I do? I just want to blend in.

Mr. Big

Dear Big:
Two pieces of advice. One, grow up. Two, eat shit and die!

PHOENIX - Da-Boss says: "No crimpin', no shavin', no readers. L.A.D.S. Monte Carlo Night had always been strictly legit...and dat's da way we're gonna keep it!"

So saying, Da Boss turned over dealer-training to a squad of trusted instructors. "By Nov. 12, I want dese guys to know how to shuffle, deal and count--wit both hands behind der backs. Got it?"

Got it, Boss. We'll maintain our usual standards. The dealers will be sharp, the drinks full-bodied, the food abundant and the prizes of high quality for Monte Carlo 1983.

"An one more thing," Da Boss reminds: "Da password to get inna my speak is 'For the fun of it!'"

(The "speak"--for those who missed it last year--is The Cedars, 17 St. and Northern. L.A.D.S. (Los Amigos del Sol) is a men's and women's social club now in its eight year.)

In response to the many calls asking for alternative ways of meeting people, the Lesbian & Gay Community Switchboard is starting twice-monthly Saturday night social gatherings to offer a non-alcohol, friendship related type of atmosphere to all in the Gay Community.

If you are just coming out or need a respite from the bars and want to meet some new faces come to David and Dominic's house at 1539 W. Lewis (2 blocks north of Encanto) on Oct. 8th between 7:30 & 8:00 p.m.

For anyone interested in offering their home or apt. for the future gatherings contact David or Dom at the hotline at 957-0363.
